

Leslie Szabó quits smoking 08/06/2005

Hungary

After smoking for fifteen years, Leslie Szabó did away with cigarettes, literally overnight. Several months ago, the singer and composer resolved to turn his back on this harmful habit once his record was ready.

“We first spoke about the record at the beginning of the summer. In all honesty I didn’t believe in it that much. I kept telling my friends that I would really quit smoking if it came off. And there you go, last week my album Van hova és van miért came out. So, I had to keep my word”, the singer –who made his spectacular debut in the talent show Megasztár –told the journalist from Blikk. “I don’t even have nicotine withdrawal symptoms”, he added..
