

Joining forces and taking action 15/12/2005

Rallying around the issue of passive smoking can help convince smokers to quit, or at least encourage them to respect non-smokers. This task may, however, seem impossible...

A number of tobacco control organisations do exist and you will find some of them under the heading "Support". Get in touch.

Une initiative de l'Union Européenne

